ROLEPLAY

To enter the New York RP server, you agree to the wording of the rules and acknowledge that the admin team can exclude you from the community at any time. You agree to abide by the rules and not act to the detriment of the server or the NYRP community.

1.0 GAME RULES

1.1 SERVER ACCESSIBILITY

- The age limit is 13 years.

1.2 BASIC CONCEPTS

- RP - ROLEPLAY
 - Playing a fictional character and his story in an artificially created (game) world.
 - Roleplay presents real life, so it needs to be played that way. Do not shoot civilians for no reason, etc. Ask for help if needed!

- IC - IN CHARACTER
 - Communication within RP in the game.

- OOC - OUT OF CHARACTER
 - Communication outside the game.

- /ME
 - Describes a certain action and replaces an animation that cannot be performed directly in the game (eg: /me buys coffee.)
 - It is used to describe the performance of an action with the expectation of the other player's reaction.
 - Asking questions and answering questions.
 - EXAMPLE:

player #1 /me looks into the trunk of the vehicle.

- RP INJURIES
 - Obligation to adequately RP injuries. If you are shot, you shouldn't be dead silent, you should be doing something such as yelling in pain.

- MIXING
 - Prohibition of OOC speech while you are in character. Do /ooc while you are IC.

- METAGAMING
 - If you find out OOC information about something that is happening in the IC, then you must not use it in the IC.

- BUNNY HOPPING
 - No jumping while running to move faster.

- POWER GAMING
 - Prohibition of unrealistic actions
 - FOR EXAMPLE:

/me picks up the vehicle and throws it at the civilian

- NONRP DRIVING
 - Unreal operation of the vehicle that the game allows you to do, but they are not real.

- Unreal vehicle driving.
- FOR EXAMPLE:

driving into hard-to-reach places with a low vehicle, going through every red light at enormous speed..

- ASSPULLING
- Unrealistic holding of oversized items in clothing pockets.

- Spam
- Advertising
- TrashRP / Troll
- TOXICITY

- Wear your uniform with pride. Do not disgrace it.
- Microphones are not required!

- The rank system is as follows:

- It will not be tolerated in all game spaces, both in IC and OOC form through chat or game voice. (We are not talking about RP action, but excessive swearing at other players, which is NOT JUSTIFIED and looks more like bullying)

- Prohibition of using excessive "yelling" (Literally eating the microphone) in the game.
- Anyone who would like to stream from the server must open a ticket and request permission to stream.
- Police have to use the NYPD codes, Fire has to use the FDNY codes. Which are located in FivePD-Info
- Ranking system is as follows:

15h - DSNY

20h - PEP

30h - NYCSO

35h - NYCD

40h - MTAPD

However, simply reaching these hours does not mean you unlock the departments, you have to show to the staff team that you are a good pick for these departments. You can 200 hours and never be chosen due to your poor RP skills.

4.0 RULE FOR STREAMERS / PARTNERS

- If the streamer is doing any activity outside of the game and RP, they should set a black screen or pause on the stream so nothing can be seen.
